

LAMB GETS BIG LEAD IN THIS CITY

Congressman Crushes All Opposition on Light Vote in Richmond.

ELECTION EXCEEDINGLY QUIET

Hanson Loses Two Wards to Colored Republican Candidate.

VOTE OF RICHMOND table with columns for Congress (Lamb, Hanson, Hollins) and Treasurer (Dem, Rep).

Featureless and lifeless to the last degree was the election held in this city yesterday, when out of a possible vote of about 1,000 only 250 were polled.

Congressman Lamb, however, got nearly all the votes cast. With three candidates in opposition he polled 234 out of the total, the combined vote of his competitors being only 25.

The precinct in which he fell down was Third Henry, or one of the old Jackson Ward voting places, where there are many colored voters.

All Offices Closed.

Never was there a sadder congressional election in Richmond, that for the operation of the new statute, which permitted the closing of the banks and city and county offices, the day was much like other days in the history of the city.

A L-rm Admider.

But little interest was shown in the local election by men, for they knew only it was going to be a sweep.

The election in Richmond yesterday demonstrated one thing clearly, and that is that there is no real opposition.

UNCOMMON WISDOM.

Some Richmond People Profit by Neighbors' Experience.

It's a wise man who profits by the experience of his friends and neighbors. Here is a chance to do it, and every man, woman or child in Richmond who knows the misery of a bad back, the nervousness and restlessness caused by kidney complaint, or the annoyance of urinary disorders, will show uncommon wisdom to profit by this citizen's advice.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Rixey's Big Majority.

In the Eighth a majority of from 5,000 to 6,000 is claimed for Mr. Rixey, Democrat, over Mr. J. B. Henderson, Republican.

In the Tenth District Mr. Flood appears to have carried every county in the district, with possibly one exception.

SLEMP RE-ELECTED BY SMALL MAJORITY

Robert P. Bruce Cuts Down the Republican Vote Largely.

The battle royal in this State was in the Ninth District, the extreme southwestern section of the State, which has been Republican since the defeat of Hon. William P. Rhea four years ago by Colonel Campbell Slem, of Wise county, who won by about 200. In 1904 Colonel Slem was again elected, defeating Hon. J. C. Wyner, Democrat, by 2,516 majority.

This year the Democrats nominated Hon. Robert P. Bruce, of Wise, who made a brilliant and powerful fight to reduce the district for the Democrats.

As nearly as can be ascertained, Colonel Slem is re-elected by about 1,400 majority, and it may possibly exceed that figure slightly.
